

Investment Objective

The Blackfriars Oriental Focus Fund invests in Asian equity markets excluding Japan and aims to generate long term capital growth. The Fund is not managed against, nor constrained by, any index. The mandate is "long only" and the portfolio is subject to normal market risk. The Euro B share class is unhedged.

Commentary

The MSCI AC Asia ex Japan Index fell 3.9% in December. Malaysia (+0.4%), the Philippines (+0.3%) and Indonesia (-0.4%) held up well while China (-7.2%) and Thailand (-4.1%) underperformed.

The shakeout in Wall Street and continued negative sentiment towards technology stocks impacted performance with portfolio holdings Alibaba (-15.8%) and SK Hynix (-13.6%) recording double digit declines over the month. Siam City Cement (-13.1%) gave up recent gains while Chinese clothes designer JNBY (-20.2%) was sold off as Chinese consumption trends weaken somewhat.

The sharp decline in US equities in the fourth quarter was overdue, all other equity markets - developed and emerging - have been struggling since early 2018. The combination of a stronger dollar, rising short term dollar interest rates, a contracting Federal Reserve balance sheet and increased trade tensions have taken their toll. It is also abundantly clear that economic growth has slowed considerably while the latest purchasing managers index released across the Asian region suggest the first quarter of 2019 will be hard work. To state the obvious, a weaker dollar and a trade deal would improve sentiment towards Asian equity considerably.
